GENERAL PROFILE

Emily joined Thatcher + Hallam in September 2023 as a Trainee Solicitor under our Trainee Lawyers Program.

Emily is due to complete her Training Contract to qualify as a Solicitor in 2025.

Whilst under her training contract, Emily is working on a variety of claims under the supervision of William Weller and Lauren Martin.

Emily currently assists injured claimants with a variety of injury matters to include accidents causing soft tissue injuries, sprains and strains and fractures. She also assists senior department members with high value and complex claims.

Emily has often been complimented by clients for her warm and friendly approach to clients from the outset and throughout claims. She prides herself in putting clients first in terms of rehabilitation and post injury care.

Emily is a tenacious litigator who works hard to achieve the best results for her clients.

NOTEABLE CASES

Emily is currently under a Training Contract and is supervised and assists on a variety of claims. If you would like to know more about Emily's experience and whether she, or any of our senior colleagues, can help with your matter, please do not hesitate to get in touch.
